The Randall Family

From Burke's General Armory - "Family name of Randall is Anglo-Saxon, meaning shield wolf" The American records say that first Randall to this country (first name not given) settled in Charlestown, Massachusetts 1635. The coat of arms is the arms: Sable, three demi lions rampant erased sans tails argent; and crest; a stiff couped and raguly, lying fleurwise vert, thereon a wolf passant azure, collared or.

William L. Claflin, on his Robert Randall and descendants, said Randall name was traceable back to Norman Conquest of England A.D 1066 - in Domesday Book of William the Conqueror, in which land was assigned to Randells, Randle, Randell, Randall etc.

Markings will be I for first generation, I^2 for second generation and I^3 for 3rd, etc; all children will be listed as I^2, I^2, I^2 if 2nd Generation and I^3, I^3, I^3 for third generation.

I am only trying to compile the data on this Joseph and Ann Randall that I have accumulated and what has been given me by others, namely Mrs Paul Hainlen, Mrs Irene Stirley, Mrs Hazel Blaine, Mrs Gertrude Kelly, Mrs Vera Wagner, Mrs Lita Forward, Mrs Ann Partridge, and from Kinslaws Vol I and Vol II, plus other credits I have listed on other pages. I hope that all mistakes I have made will be corrected by anyone reading this, who has proof it is otherwise. Mrs Helma Farquer also gave me information.

From Early Settlement of Friends in the Miami Valley, edited by Willard Heiss, from Levi Smith Notes, we the following on Quakers: "Emigration from the North-for the Revolutionary war, Pennsylvania, and North Carolina to South Carolina and on into Georgia, by the Quakers, drawn to the south by Location of pleasant and balmy weather. But they found other than expected this and fruitful hills, and they were not slow in embracing the first opportunity to move on, and were among the first to cross the Ohio River, to free territory on north side of river, as Jacob Dick had given them a perpetual warning of bloodshed." From Dra Annals of Newberry District, S.C., "J. Dicks warned the Friends to come out of slavery by 1807." "The Quaker settlement of Bush River, South Carolina, had changed in population, and it was composed of many small farmers. These Friends were hard-working, tidy, frugal, ingenious and industrious, though a timid people. They had the best land in South Carolina, which they sold for 3 to 6 an acre, less than ½ the true value, and with their effects all a distance of their native, why buying small light weight and easy to manage. (Put in light wagon, Cart, or on pack horses; the hand ornaments made, as the children wanted, why manner cut ways or bridle paths. They went through Cumberland Gap, over mountains, rivers, and down Kentucky River, through about three months time. No lodging else together, and they seldom reached a good place to rest. They went up the Ohio & Georgia through Tennessee and Kentucky, part of the way following Boone's trail to Indiana, while others came to Cincinnati, then west to Indiana, while others joined in the Ohio. There were Randel (Randall, Randle) Family

Will of Joseph Randall, written May 25, 1817, and probated 9-4-1826 — Will Book 2 - page 125, Preble County, Ohio, Probate Court, Eaton, Ohio.

"In the name of God, Amen. I, Joseph Randel, of the State of Ohio, Preble County, being perfectly in mind and memory, thanks be to God, but calling unto the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament that is to say principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul to the Almighty God that gave it and my body I recommend to the earth, and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased to bless me within this life I dispose of in the following manner. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary all my land and cattle, hogs, and sheep, and all my moveable property and also two hundred and twenty dollars that is owing me in South Carolina all to remain for the use of my wife Mary. I also allow my son Joseph to have fifty dollars and my son Thomas to have twenty dollars, and also my son William to have three dollars, and the rest to be equally divided amongst the living children, I likewise make and ordain my wife, Mary Randel and Amos Randel the sole executrix and executor of this my last will testament, whereby I ratify and confirm this to be my last will and testament in witness whereof I set my hand and seal this twenty sixth day of fifth month in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.

Albert Corn b. 11/9/1825 Shelby Co., Ky. - d. 5/22/1899, Ind. son of Williams and Sarah (Allen) Corn (my 999pts) on 11/23/1848, Montgomery Co., Indiana. They are buried in Harshbarger cemetery. They lived for 2 years after marriage with his parents in Clark Twp., Montgomery Co., Ind.; then he bought 80 a in Walnut Twp. He built a two-room cabin on the land, then in 1869 replaced cabin with a neat frame residence and other substantial buildings that are still standing. The two front rooms of our house 30 x 15 are the two roomed cabin that uncle Albert built around in 1850, after my grandfather James Randel's death.
In 1900, my grandmother sold their farm west of Whitesville, and bought 30 a. of land east of Whitesville, 1 mile south of Uncle Albert Corn's.
She built a barn, moved the two rooms here, added two more rooms. She sold this in 1907 and my in-laws bought it in 1925. We bought it in 1935. Others had added rooms; we added rooms and porches and it has lost all resemblance to Aunt Rachel's first two-room home. Rachel was my 99 aunt and Uncle Albert was my 99 uncle, both related to me

Marish

Kennebec,

Rocky Mountains, where country was sparsely settled. They put cabin, household goods, farm implements on big raft, to cross the river, there being no bridges. Water was rough, and current strong, and they couldn't land. Her father kept trying to throw a rope around trees but it would pull them up. Finally, some ranchers saw their plight and helped to stop raft just in time — they were almost to rapids. There they landed in Montana. Her father swam the river, at great risk, and went through tunnel between trains, to get to town. Two children Josie and Guy started to school there, crossing by boat in summer, and by ice in winter. Two others, Lowe and Minnie born there, but Frank and Hazel were born a little farther from town. House is still standing. Hazel's grandfather, Joseph III, was a fighter, for what he believed to be right. One time a gang tricked him into going to a school-house, as they could beat him up, but he foiled them, he knocked out the light, and beat them all up. Hazel's aunt Indn lived in Great Falls Montana, and she saw Abram Randall's obituary in the paper. She went to funeral home, and he looked so much like her father Joseph, that she contacted family, and found they were brothers! One of Abram's boys was a minister in Great Falls, Montana.
